Property

The ground floor boasts a spacious entrance hall and a modern cloakroom. The hallway leads you to a larger than most bright and airy living room which offers a cosy fireplace and large windows that flood the room with natural light. The home presents an expansive kitchen and breakfast room with bi-folding doors featuring modern appliances, ample storage and an isolated utility room. The property offers flexible accommodation with a further three reception rooms for a home study or playrooms. On the first floor there are five bedrooms, the master bedroom features an en-suite four-piece bathroom and the remaining bedrooms share access to a well-appointed family bathroom.

Outside

Upon arrival you are greeted by a beautiful exterior that radiates character and charm, complimented by mature trees meaning the home is tucked away and extremely private. The large driveway provides ample parking space for multiple vehicles and leads to a garage. To the rear of the house the landscaped garden offers a large patio and expansive manicured lawns that is secluded and not overlooked.

Location

Located in the picturesque village of Burchett's Green, this property offers a tranquil and idyllic setting surrounded by the stunning woodlands offering private and remote living.
