There is much more to communities than just homes. They are places that feel connected and accessible – where you can work, play, meet, and enjoy nature.

We build in beautiful locations where everyone is welcome and has what they need – places people are proud to call home. From shops, schools and leisure services through to parks and transport links, our homes belong to close-knit communities with all the facilities you need to thrive.

In Chalgrove, you can enjoy a wealth of doorstep amenities together with areas of outstanding natural beauty close by while Oxford's museums, theatres, shops and restaurants are a mere 12 miles away.

Discover an inviting High Street home to shops, a post office, a pharmacy and GP practice, with a choice of three traditional pubs including The Red Lion — a popular gastropub offering a selection of real ales — which dates back 500 years at least.

Chalgrove's beautiful rural location offers spectacular walking and cycle routes and the opportunity to enjoy a country lifestyle with all the familiar conveniences of modern life. Nearby Watlington Hill — a butterfly spotter's paradise well known for its large triangular white mark and wonderful views over the Oxfordshire Plain — is a place to visit time and again.

Meadow Brook provides the best of modern country living

Located in the historic village of Chalgrove in South Oxfordshire, Meadow Brook offers the best of both worlds: the chance to belong to a close-knit village community while being able to make the most of Oxford's fantastic city attractions — a mere 10 miles or so away.

As a resident of Meadow Brook, you can enjoy all that this lovely rural community has to offer — its charming High Street and village green along with clubs and activities the whole family can enjoy, from the Women's Institute to cricket and football for children and adults alike. From countryside walks to gastro-dining and summer festivals, there's something to suit everyone's tastes.

A half hour's drive away is The Chilterns — offering rolling hills, chalk grassland and acres of woodland to explore, not to mention exquisite views from Watlington Hill, part of a larger Site of Special Scientific Interest that offers an abundance of year-round natural beauty. The more active can also look forward to nearby golf or open water swimming.

Just a few miles away you're free to explore one of the UK's oldest and culturally rich cities — Oxford, now a bustling cosmopolitan town and — as part of the Golden Triangle — one of the UK's fastest-growing commercial centres.
