222 Bishopsgate is based on the corner of Bishopsgate and Artillery Lane, containing six floors of flexible self-contained offices, coworking space, and amenities designed to boost productivity. The interiors are newly refurbished to a high standard, with super-fast internet, sophisticated air-con, and on-site showers all contributing to create a comfortable environment. Positioned centrally between Shoreditch and the City, and with a range of Underground stations in easy walking distance, 222 Bishopsgate combines an outstanding location with refined facilities to create the perfect office option near Liverpool Street station.

While 222 Bishopsgate itself doesn't have notable historical pedigree, it's surrounded by nods to London's history. Bishopsgate, the thoroughfare heading south into the City of London, is a former Roman road that was named after an old gate in the city wall. Artillery Lane's name is a throwback to Spitalfields past as 'The Old Artillery Ground', which King Henry VIII used as a practice-ground for weaponry.

And immediately behind 222 Bishopsgate, you'll find narrow lanes, passages, and courtyards that give you a glimpse of London's history, all protected by a conservation area.

Inside 222 Bishopsgate, there's a range of unbranded, self-contained office suites available on flexible leases. They all benefit from communal facilities, including cycle racks, on-site showers, and ground-floor café, and are newly refurbished to a high-spec. There's also a coworking lounge available through The Boutique Members Club, granting access to 15+ other lounges across London, Birmingham, and Oxfordshire. Bookable meeting rooms, private phone booths, break-out areas, and reception services round out 222 Bishopsgate's offering.

It's the perfect choice for businesses seeking an office space nearby Liverpool Street station or in the City of London with all the facilities you need for a productive workday inside, and plenty of local cultural and commercial amenities nearby, 222 Bishopsgate offers the full package.
