A well presented, extended two bedroom detached bungalow in the popular village of Oakley, benefitting from a generous en-suite shower room, two double bedrooms both with fitted wardrobes, and a good sized lounge/dining room.

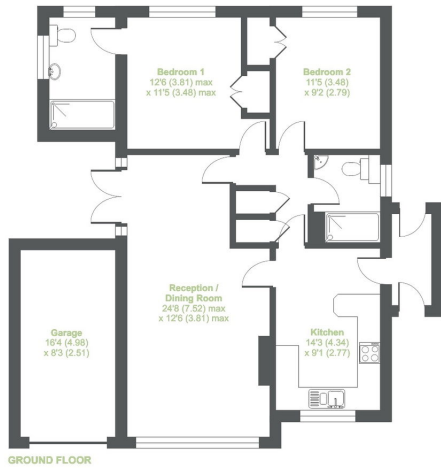

Further benefits include a refitted kitchen with breakfast bar, a refitted family bathroom, single garage with power and light, partly block-paved driveway, low maintenance rear garden and summer house.

Situated on Kennet Way in the centre of the village of Oakley close to local amenities including two convenience stores and village pub. Oakley itself is nestled in the pretty Hampshire countryside just a few miles west of Basingstoke and offers the ideal blend of country living and modern urban facilities just a short drive away.
