ACCOMMODATION

The ground floor welcomes you via a porch and central hallway, leading to a choice of reception spaces including a sitting room, a large living room with doors to the garden, and a formal dining room connecting to the well-appointed kitchen. The kitchen itself benefits from ample storage and workspace, and opens into a bright conservatory, perfect as a breakfast or garden room. A utility room and ground floor WC provide further practicality, while a shower room off the sitting room could be used as a downstairs bedroom or guest room.

Upstairs, the home continues to impress with four good-sized bedrooms, including a spacious principal bedroom with en-suite shower room. The remaining bedrooms are all well-proportioned and served by a family bathroom with bath and separate shower.

EXTERNAL

Outside, the property features an attractive and private rear garden which backs onto a field, while the front offers off-road parking and access to the home via the porch. This superb family home combines space, flexibility, and comfort, all within a desirable setting — perfect for those seeking a home to grow into and make their own.

Chapel House is situated in the picturesque village of Bulwick, a charming rural community surrounded by rolling Northamptonshire countryside. The village offers a peaceful setting with a strong sense of community, centred around its popular pub, The Queen's Head, and attractive period homes. Nearby towns such as Uppingham, Stamford, and Corby provide excellent amenities, schooling, and transport links, while easy access to the A43 connects the area to the wider region, making Bulwick an ideal location for those seeking village living with convenient access to nearby market towns and commuter routes.
