Gray's Residential are delighted to present this spacious three-bedroom Victorian garden flat in the highly sought-after Clapham SW9. Perfect for young professionals, this stylish home combines classic period charm with modern living, making it a standout opportunity in one of South London's most desirable locations.

Situated in the heart of SW9, the property benefits from excellent transport links via Clapham North and Stockwell Underground stations (Northern and Victoria lines), offering quick and convenient access to Central London.

The flat comprises three double bedrooms, two bathrooms, an open-plan kitchen/dining space, a separate reception room, and wooden flooring throughout, all complemented by a private garden — perfect for entertaining or relaxing outdoors.

Residents will also enjoy a wealth of local amenities. Clapham High Street, Brixton Village, and Clapham Common are all within easy walking distance, providing a vibrant mix of cafés, restaurants, bars, and green open spaces.
