Birmingham is one of the UK's largest economies with a fast growing population and a strong pipeline of new development, housing and infrastructure. Birmingham City Council's (BCC) vision and aim is to create a city of sustained inclusive growth and as the largest local authority in the country – with the biggest property portfolio – they have the opportunity to utilise the council's property and land assets in a strategic way to deliver on priorities.

The Birmingham Development Plan (BDP) was adopted by BCC in January 2017 and sets out the growth strategy for the city to 2031. Peddimore is the BDP's flagship employment allocation. BCC is committed to the development of Peddimore to meet the council's ambition to grow employment opportunities and meet expansion demand from the local and wider Midlands and UK economy.
