DESCRIPTION

This unique freehold property is part of a small collection of pastel-coloured mews houses discreetly located on Archery Close, a cobbled mews just off Connaught Street. The ground floor of this mews house opens onto dual-aspect open-plan living space with access to the lower and upper floors. The lower ground floor consists of a fully fitted kitchen, utility room, guest wc plus access to outside space. The upper floors have access to two double bedrooms, a family bathroom and access to a private south-facing roof terrace. As well as the array of independent cafes and shops found in Connaught Village, the beautiful green spaces of Hyde Park are only a short stroll, as is the hustle and bustle of Oxford Street.

Archery Close is located just off Connaught Village, a haven for cafés, restaurants, and independent retailers, with the beautiful green spaces of Hyde Park only a short stroll away, as is the hustle and bustle of Oxford Street.
