STEP INSIDE

Beechwood

This home is offered with no onward chain.

A stunning ground floor, luxury two-bedroom apartment, situated in Frogmore Hall, Frogmore Park. Frogmore Hall is a Grade II listed Victorian property set within 12 acres of grounds and woodland surrounded by parkland and rolling Hertfordshire countryside. This meticulously refurbished home offers approximately 1871 sq. ft of living accommodation, and has a private Southwest facing terrace with wrought Iron fencing, together with an additional storeroom and garage which is currently fitted as a golf practice studio. The property has been completely refurbished to an extremely high standard over the past year and offers a beautiful bespoke Tom Howley kitchen, separate utility area and boot room. The bedrooms have built in Hammonds bedroom furniture and new luxury ensuite bathrooms. The sash windows and doors have all been professionally restored and draft proofed and all doors and window hardware upgraded with complementary antique brass fittings. All the electrical sockets and switches, some with USB hubs, have also been matched with the same. There is an allocated parking space with plenty of visitors parking. Pets are allowed, EPC exempt, Council tax band F, share of freehold with a lease of 999 years from 24th June 2007.

Step Inside

A private entrance from the terrace, with wooden front door and large glass panel allowing light to flood into the spacious hallway with solid oak flooring. The flooring also flows into the boot room which is fitted with the identical cabinetry and design of the kitchen. It is finished with a brushed nickel towel rail and tap over the Shaws ceramic basin and Villeroy & Boch W.C with window to the front. The second bedroom is spacious with built in Hammonds high gloss cream bedroom furniture and a newly fitted carpet. There is a modern en-suite shower room with under floor heating, designed by C.P. Hart, with porcelain tiles throughout. The hot water system has been recently upgraded with a new Megaflo and water softener all of which is situated inside the storage cupboard.

A step up to the main lobby with recently fitted carpets flowing through the hallway which leads to the kitchen, drawing room and master bedroom.

A superb bespoke Tom Howley kitchen fitted in 2023 and hand painted in a Farrow and Ball colour, with matching sideboard. The stunning kitchen has a Falcon range oven with gas hob and Westin extractor fan, Miele dishwasher and Fisher & Paykel fridge freezer. Caesar stone organic white quartz worktops and complementary island with wine cooler. There is a ceramic Shaws sink with cold water filter tap and two large feature sash windows overlooking the formal front gardens. The Worcester boiler is housed discreetly within a wall unit. There is Puma Opal porcelain flooring, with underfloor heating throughout the kitchen and dining area along with tasteful antique brass light fittings

The utility area is also fully fitted with the same matching cabinetry and worktop with Miele washing machine and Miele tumble dryer.

The substantial, light-filled drawing room has beautiful high ceilings and triple aspect sash windows along with French doors leading out to the Southwest facing terrace. A stunning original Victorian fireplace made from Italian Statuario marble, which has been professionally restored houses a Chesney woodburning stove. New carpet throughout and in excellent decorative condition.

The East facing principal bedroom has beautiful ceiling height sash windows to the front of the building with ornate picture rail and new Hammonds white high gloss built in wardrobes. There is a luxury high end en-suite bathroom with under floor heating, bath and substantial shower, his and hers basin with floating vanity storage draws and Villeroy & Boch W.C along with fully tiled porcelain walls and flooring. There is also a large mirrored Keuco wall cabinet and high-quality chromewear throughout.
