LOCATION

The property is located in Stamford, an attractive, historic market town located approximately 1 mile east of the A1 Trunk Road on the Cambridgeshire/Lincolnshire/Rutland border, approximately 8 miles north west of Peterborough and 100 miles north of London. The town is situated on the River Welland and consists of many historic buildings and Burghley House.

The property is situated in the town centre close to the junction between The High Street, St Paul's Street and Star Lane. Nearby occupiers include Domino Pizzas, M&S Foodhall and O2.

DESCRIPTION

The property is situated in a prominent position on St Paul's Street and comprises of a self-contained lock up shop on the ground floor with w.c and basement and a self-contained two bedroom flat on the first and second floors.

The building is generally of stone construction beneath a Collyweston slate roof with recently replaced dormer window in the front elevation. Access to the flat is via a shared passage off St Paul's Street which leads to a steel staircase and decking at the rear of the property. The building is Grade II listed.
