Benefits of buying off-plan

With a brand new Bloor home, you'll discover our homes are designed for modern living, our homes in Highbridge are built to an exceptionally high standard, with fitted kitchens with beautiful finishes, and contemporary bathrooms. When you buy a new house from Bloor we want it to become your home, so you can have the freedom to personalise the finishes of your new kitchen, bathroom and en suite using our unique and comprehensive choices available when you reserve in the early stages of construction.

Save your energy for better things

Life is easier when there's less to think about... including the rising energy prices.

That's why we build our spacious new homes to be desirably energy efficient. Not only could you save up to £2,600 on your annual utility bills†, but you'll also find your new home produces 75% less carbon dioxide emissions, meaning it's better for the environment.
