Welcome to Tudor Lodge, an exquisite detached property nestled away in a quiet corner of Chigwell sitting on a plot of just under 0.5 acres (STMS).

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by the grand entrance hallway boasting high ceilings, and ornamental plaster ceilings but most striking is the bifurcated staircase. The staircase sets the tone for the rest of the property and the grandeur within.

To the front of the property, you will find a formal reception room finished with parquet flooring, bay windows and decorative ceilings. This room is ideal for formal dining occasions or would be the ideal snug you can retire to at the end of a hard day. On the opposite side of the hallway, you have the front-to-back reception room, finished to the same high standard you will find throughout the property. This room is perfect for more everyday occasions or entertaining guests.

To the rear of the property you have the heart of the home, the gorgeous open-plan kitchen dining area. No expense has been spared on the kitchen, from the gorgeous marble worktops to the integrated appliances, even the most experienced chefs will feel at home in the kitchen. Integrated appliances include an induction hob, two conventional ovens, a built-in coffee machine and Quooker hot tap. Along with the amazing show kitchen, you have the secondary spice kitchen fitted with additional work surfaces, a hob, an extractor and two ovens. Off the kitchen, there is a fully fitted utility room and downstairs shower room.

The kitchen wraps around into a lounge-dining space with two sets of bi-folding doors which let the light pour in.

Take the grand bifurcated staircase to the first floor, the impressive galleried landing
