9 Market Street

Ulverston, LA12 7AY

Offers In The Region Of £325,000

For sale freehold, this prime property boasts an exceptional location with high street frontage, offering excellent visibility and accessibility. The storefront presents a lucrative opportunity for retail or commercial ventures, ideal for attracting foot traffic and maximising business potential. Beyond the bustling street-facing facade lies an additional versatile space, perfect for retail operations or other commercial endeavors. Additionally, the property includes three self-contained one-bedroom flats above, providing an attractive investment opportunity with potential rental income streams. With its strategic positioning, adaptable layout, and mixed-use potential, this property represents a lucrative investment opportunity in a thriving town.

At the ground level, two distinct commercial units occupy the bustling Market Street. The front unit currently houses a thriving hair salon, benefitting from the steady flow of foot traffic. Meanwhile, the rear commercial unit, accessible from Potters Court, is currently utilised as consulting rooms, offering versatile possibilities for multi-use purposes. Ascending to the upper levels of Market Street, three self-contained flats are spread across the first and second floors, accessed through common parts from Potters Court. Each flat is thoughtfully arranged, featuring a comfortable sitting room, a well-equipped kitchen, a modern bathroom, and a cosy bedroom, ensuring a desirable living environment for prospective tenants. With its strategic location, diverse rental income streams, and adaptable layout, this multi-let property presents an attractive investment opportunity in a vibrant urban setting.
