Description

The hallway welcomes you with two spacious storage cupboards, offering ample room to keep your belongings neatly organized. The reception room is a warm and inviting space, featuring a focal central fireplace that adds character, while the box bay window provides an ideal area for dining. The fitted kitchen is both functional and stylish, equipped with a mix of freestanding and integrated appliances, complemented by fitted wall and base units, and enhanced with tiled splash areas. The double bedroom is a comfortable retreat, complete with mirror-fronted built-in wardrobes that provide generous storage. The fully tiled bathroom features a classic white three-piece suite, accompanied by a Mira electric shower for a refreshing and convenient bathing experience.

Extras

The property shall be sold with all fixtures, fittings, integrated appliances and fitted floor coverings.

Gardens & Parking

Externally, the flat benefits from the development's beautifully maintained garden grounds, which are primarily laid to lawn and feature charming seating areas where residents can relax and enjoy the outdoors. The landscaped gardens offer a serene environment, perfect for unwinding or socializing with neighbors. Additionally, convenient private parking is available in the residents' car park, ensuring ease of access and peace of mind. The development is professionally managed by Taylor and Martin, who handle the upkeep of the communal areas, with a factoring fee of approximately £119 per calendar month, ensuring that the shared spaces are always well-kept and inviting.
