MARESFIELD GARDENS — NW3

Mourne House is a mid century apartment building located on the lower slopes of Maresfield Gardens, a highly desirable road rich with history.

This two bedroom apartment benefits from direct access to a west facing terrace from both the reception room and the principal bedroom, in addition to direct access to a large communal garden.

Developed during the Victorian era as part of the Maryon Wilson family estate, Maresfield Gardens is renowned for its elegant period homes and historical significance, notably as the final residence of Sigmund Freud at number 20, now the Freud Museum.

Benefiting from close proximity to all of the amenities of Hampstead High Street (0.8 miles) together with excellent transport links - Finchley Road Station (Jubilee & Metropolitan Lines) is just 0.2 miles away, Swiss Cottage Station (Jubilee Line) is 0.3 miles away, and Finchley Road & Frognal Overground Station is 0.5 miles away.

The green open spaces of Hampstead Heath, Primrose Hill and Regents Park are also close by, offering a natural escape within the city.
