A QUIET, PICTURESQUE LOCATION JUST MINUTES FROM THE HUSTLE AND BUSTLE

With a home at Whitehill Gardens, Godmanchester's picturesque town centre is a five-minute drive from your front door and offers all the essentials, such as convenience stores, a butcher, post office and pharmacy, plus a GP surgery and dentist.

There is also a choice of eateries in the town, with relaxing riverside cafés and a variety of pubs and restaurants that can cater for many tastes.

For more excitement, simply cross the bridge into the hustle and bustle of Huntingdon. This market town can be reached in 10 minutes by road and offers a wider selection of amenities, including high-street shops, supermarkets, and a leisure centre with swimming pool, gym and fitness studios.

You'll also find plenty to keep the whole family entertained, with a multi-screen cinema, soft play and regular race days at Huntingdon Racecourse.

Godmanchester also provides plenty of opportunity to get away from it all and enjoy the great outdoors. Simply cross the landmark Chinese Bridge and explore Portholme Meadow, a sprawling wild water meadow that offers beautiful riverside walks all year round.

If you like to keep active, Judith's Field Recreation Centre is a 13-minute walk away and features a great selection of facilities, including a number of sports pitches, a playground, skatepark and plenty of open space.

Godmanchester benefits from three primary schools, all within 10 minutes by road, and there is a choice of secondary schools in nearby Huntingdon. For further education Cambridge Regional College has a Huntingdon Campus located an 11-minute drive away.

When it comes to travel, Godmanchester enjoys fantastic road connections, with the nearby A14 putting Cambridge less than 30 minutes away and the A1 acting as a gateway to the North. Alternatively, Huntingdon Station operates direct rail services to London King's Cross in around an hour, making for a hassle-free city commute.

For international travel, Stansted Airport is located approximately 45 minutes away and offers flights to over 150 destinations.
