Situation

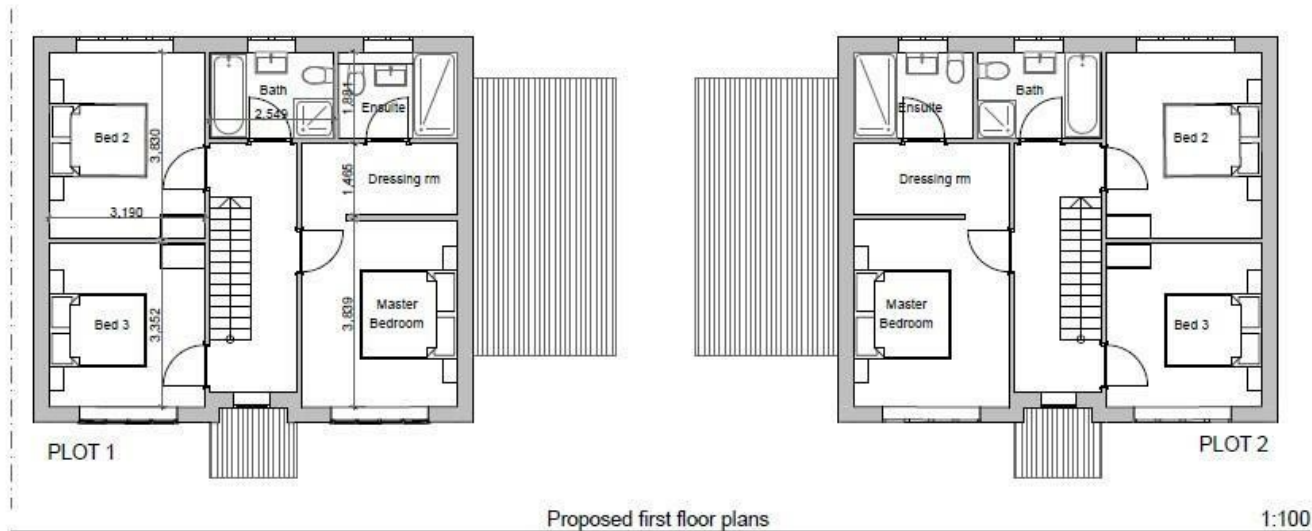

Thrupp is a popular rural village which is approximately just under two miles from Stroud town with access to a wide range of shops and amenities both in nearby Brimscombe and in Stroud. Amenities include a range of schools, supermarkets, and newsagents, a leisure and sports centre, and an award-winning weekly farmers market. Stroud also offers a convenient mainline railway station with a direct line to London (Paddington) while Cirencester (10 miles), Cheltenham (18 miles) and Swindon (25 miles) are all within driving distance. Thrupp itself is an ideal area for enjoying a range of lovely countryside walks in the surrounding hills, while good cycling and walking routes can be found along the canal with connections to Stroud, Stonehouse, and Chalford.

Tenure and Services

The land is sold with a freehold title.

All mains services are believed to be connected to the road.
