Property Description

This beautifully extended, chain-free three-bedroom Victorian home offers 1,394 square feet of living space, blending classic charm with contemporary design. Situated in the desirable Hatcham Conservation Area, the property is just a 9-minute walk from New Cross Gate Station and close to local schools, including Hatcham Primary.

The home features a bright, spacious living room with original stained-glass windows, leading to a large kitchen/dining area with high-end finishes, including a custom porcelain kitchen top and double oven. Bifold doors open to a sunny, south-facing garden, perfect for outdoor entertaining. The property also boasts a utility room, a downstairs shower room, and a cellar for additional storage.

Upstairs, there are three double bedrooms, including a generous master, and a stunning family bathroom with contemporary fixtures. The property's eco-friendly design won the Green Apple Award 2022 for "Beautiful Buildings," highlighting its sustainable features including heat source pump, zonal underfloor heating throughout and double-glazed heritage wooden sash windows.

With a full refurbishment in 2021, including new electrics, plumbing, roof, and insulation, this home offers modern comfort in a historic setting. A true gem in a sought-after location, it is ideal for those seeking a stylish family home with excellent transport links.
