Flagstones are delighted to present this stunning two-bedroom, one-bathroom apartment located on the first floor, conveniently close to Hatch End station. Its proximity to public transportation makes it highly accessible for commuters, enhancing its appeal for potential homeowners.

Situated near local shops, residents can enjoy easy access to amenities and services, adding to the convenience of daily living. Whether it's grabbing groceries, dining out, or running errands, everything is within reach, making this location ideal for owners seeking convenience and accessibility.

With its modern design, the apartment offers a stylish and comfortable living space. Modern amenities and finishes contribute to a contemporary feel, attracting homeowners who appreciate a sleek and up-to-date living environment.

The property also boasts a long lease, providing stability for both investors and homeowners. A long lease term is often desirable as it offers security and peace of mind for all parties involved.

Given its location, amenities, modern design, and long lease, this property presents a compelling buy-to-let investment opportunity. Its appeal to tenants seeking convenience, comfort, and style, coupled with its potential for long-term rental income, makes it an attractive option for investors looking to capitalize on the rental market.
