The Indoors

The impressive building is accessed via a communal secure entry system with passenger lifts taking you to each floor. As you arrive on the 8th floor, entrance to the apartment opens into an inviting hallway with doors leading to all common rooms.

The open plan living room has dual aspect floor to ceiling windows allowing excellent light with doors leading to the balcony. The room offers ample space for socialising and entertaining with numerous design options for furniture layout for modern living. The kitchen has built-in fridge/freezer, oven and hob with extractor and complements the open plan living perfectly.

Both bedrooms are of good size and offer floor to ceiling windows allowing an abundance of natural light.

The contemporary bathroom has built-in toilet cistern, counter top sink and bath with wall mounted shower.

The Outdoors

The balcony boasts an excellent space for relaxation and alfresco dining whilst taking in the wonderful far reaching views over the O2 Arena.

Loving The Location

Neutron Tower is extremely well located being just a 30 second walk away from East India Dock DLR providing quick and easy access into Canary Wharf and The City. Canary Wharf itself can be reached easily by foot and there are a vast array of shops, restaurants and supermarkets nearby. For the frequent flyers, City Airport can be found just a short distance away via the DLR or approximately 10-15 minutes by car. Canning Town station is within close proximity and is serviced by the DLR and Jubilee Line, allowing easy access to The City and Canary Wharf as well as the West End with just a 20 minute journey to Bond Street station.
