The Home -

Positioned mid-terrace on the peaceful Mayola Road, the house is set behind a front garden and the boroughs traffic calming measures minimise through traffic along this section of the street. The front door opens to an inviting hallway with original cornicing and access to a cellar and ground floor W/C. This handsome Victorian terraced house is owned by a local artist who have sensitively restored the home over the years, now exuding charm and character in abundance. It has three double bedrooms, sash windows throughout, solar panels to assist with keeping utility bills down and situated within easy reach of the ever popular Chatsworth Road, there are numerous excellent primary and secondary schools including Clapton Girls School close by and the open green spaces of Millfields Park, Victoria Park, Hackney Marshes, the Olympic park and the River Lea are all a short walk away.

The Indoors

At the front of the plan is a double reception room, where the original pine floors have been carefully restored along with the decorative fireplaces. Intricate cornicing, also original, extends around the upper section of walls along with the original ceiling rose. A corner of bookshelves is positioned at the rear, next to a striking window that looks down the side access to the mature garden. The front reception room has a wonderful log burner perfect for those cold winter evenings, original pine shutters and double doors that separate the rooms perfectly. The light filled extended kitchen is found at the back of the plan. The room beams with light through the side bay window and triple doors the back that lead to the garden. The kitchen is made up of low and high level cabinetry with white frontage, Corean worktops and is the perfect space to entertain and dine with guests.

The exposed wooden staircase leads you to the first floor where you will find three well proportioned bedrooms. At the front of the plan you will find the main bedroom, currently being used as a home office/studio. The middle of the plan offers a beautiful double bedroom with fireplace and tiled surround. At the rear of the plan you will find another double bedroom with glorious views over the garden and family bathroom complete with roll top bath, exposed flooring and separate W/C.

The Outdoors

The secluded mature garden is accessed from the large doors at the rear of the kitchen. The area is mainly laid to lawn with mature foliage flanking both sides of the garden separated by a pebble border, you will find a mature apple tree, vegetable planters with fruit bushes and a variety of wonderful plants creating the perfect space to enjoy nature within a city setting.
