The Indoors

As you enter through your private entrance, a staircase leads to a generous hallway that connects the entire living space. To your right, the stunning open-plan kitchen/living room offers a sense of volume and light that's rare in period conversions. Southwest-facing floor-to-ceiling doors open up to serene views, while large skylights overhead flood the space with sunlight throughout the day.

The kitchen is a modern design with soft sandstone matte cabinetry, Carrara marble worktops, and integrated appliances including a built-in oven, dishwasher, and fridge-freezer. There's plenty of space for a full dining setup, making it perfect for entertaining. The living area provides a calm, minimalist retreat with room for a large sofa and media wall setup.

Both bedrooms are peaceful, light-filled spaces with well-placed windows and room for double beds and fitted wardrobes. The plush twist pile wool mix carpets underfoot bring warmth and texture to the space.

The bathroom is finished to an exceptional standard, with Claybrook travertine and terrazzo-inspired tiles, a white ash veneer vanity, and satin gunmetal fixtures. A full-size bath with overhead shower and quartz countertops adds to the spa-like feel.
