We are delighted to bring to market this spacious 3 bed semi detached home, beautifully presented with a separate home office and large garden, this family home is ready to move straight in to. The accommodation on the ground floor comprises of separate kitchen with plenty of cupboards and space for a range of appliances, a bright lounge/diner with storage cupboard and double doors that give access into the rear garden. The hallway has generous cupboard understairs and the stairs lead to the first floor with two large double bedrooms, both housing a built-in wardrobe, a further good sized single and a family bathroom. Outside, the property has a beautiful front garden, a large driveway giving parking for multiple vehicles and a garage. The rear garden is a fantastic size with different sociable areas and levels and has the added benefit of a home office at the end of the garden! This property has recently had added loft insulation and new windows, so this home has everything you need for family living and must be viewed to be appreciated.
