Summary

This characterful detached family home in the hamlet of Burland, designed by a local architectural practice, offers a wealth of desirable features too numerous to mention. Surrounded by open fields, woodlands in an area abundant with wildlife, this property provides a true rural lifestyle without being remote. It also boasts the originally designed and incorporated planned potential for further enhancement, with readily convertible lofts and very feasible open plan ground floor living.

Enter through the front porch with ceramic tiled entrance hall, leading to a creative interconnecting internal layout featuring a fitted kitchen, dining room with French doors opening to a charming patio area, a south-facing conservatory with French doors, again opening onto the patio and overlooking the naturalised garden and mature trees. There is a square interconnecting triple aspect living room enjoying a cascade of natural light and views into woodland, a dual aspect study, a utility room with a sunken (ideal for muddy pets or children) shower base, a wc and two walk in storage cupboards.

The first floor encompasses a spacious master bedroom with a dressing area and en-suite, alongside three additional double bedrooms and a family bathroom complete with a separate shower and bath. All bedrooms have fully fitted built in wardrobes.

Outdoor features include a driveway for multiple vehicles, a large rear garden surrounded by greenery and woodlands and a secluded and flagged courtyard area.

This four-bedroom property presents a rare and unique opportunity for those seeking an idyllic family home, with the significant benefit of expansion and personalisation at very economic cost and modest upheaval.
