Clitheroe House is an immaculate, one-of-a-kind property that combines the best of period architecture and modern styling and is set in one of the most sought-after villages in north Leeds. This stunning home dating back to the 17th Century and occupies an enviable position and boasts a large resin driveway, detached double garage and workshop, and a fabulous southeast-facing walled garden.

Stylish, contemporary interiors are present throughout. You enter this home into a spacious entrance hallway that grants access to a wonderful living room with a raised area perfect for a snug, playroom or home office. The living room boasts a granite surround fireplace with log burner and overlooks the southeast-facing garden.

The vendors have recently installed a wonderful Wren kitchen featuring quartz worktops, island with breakfast bar, double-inset Belfast sink, quooker tap, integrated appliances, Amtico flooring and a large pantry. From the kitchen there is access to the stunning orangery, an excellent addition added by the current owners, which houses living and dining areas and double doors onto a patio which leads on to a walled garden ideal for entertaining.

Heading upstairs there are five large double bedrooms. The principal bedroom comes with access to a large en suite which also acts as a jack-and-jill house bathroom. Bedroom two overlooks the fabulous back garden and bedroom three benefits from an en suite shower room.

The top floor has two further double bedrooms which feature exposed beams and lots of natural light from Velux windows. The top floor benefits from fitted storage and far-reaching views from all windows.

Externally this home, provides plenty of off-street parking with a resin drive which provides access to a double garage and workshop. To the rear is a large walled and lawned garden making it the perfect place to raise a family.
