Nestled amidst the popular village of Thorner, Northfield House occupies an enviable plot set back from Main Street. Originally constructed in the 1800s as a barn, this exquisite property has since been meticulously converted into a beautifully presented 4-bedroom residence, seamlessly blending period character with modern convenience and offering a truly exceptional garden.

As you step into the entrance hallway of this home, you are immediately welcomed by high ceilings and beautiful coving which offers an insight into the period features offered throughout. The entrance hallway grants access to a formal sitting room with an ornate fireplace with a log-burning stove, a dining room with a gas-fired stove, and a W.C. and cloakroom offering further access to a cellar space, ideal for additional storage. Off the dining room, there is also a breakfast kitchen which grants direct access out onto the terrace, perfect for alfresco dining. The kitchen comprises high-quality oak units, granite worktops, an aga, and a further range of Siemens and Neff appliances. There is also a fully-fitted utility room and hallway with coat storage located off the kitchen which leads out to the courtyard. The ground floor also accommodates a study and a workshop, accessible from outside the property, which is currently partitioned. This partition could be removed to create a larger office space, which can be both internally and externally accessed, or converted to an annex if desired.

Upstairs, Northfield House features a light and airy landing which leads to four, generously sized, double bedrooms, all of which benefit from fitted wardrobes and fantastic garden views. There is an en suite shower room to the primary bedroom and also a house bathroom with both bath and walk-in shower.

Externally, the property boasts ample outdoor space, ideal for enjoying the tranquillity of the surrounding countryside. The gardens are beautifully manicured and zoned into three areas - an upper terrace with a patio, a formal partially walled middle lawn with a terrace of Acers, herbaceous borders and fruit trees leading to a large informal grassy area with duck pond, mature trees, and stream - a haven for wildlife! The walled courtyard is accessed by two separate shared driveways to Main Street providing ample private parking.
