SITUATION

Goodamoor Farm is situated between the village of Sparkwell and the suburb of Plympton, in South Devon.

The village of Sparkwell is very close on the east boundary about a quarter of a mile distant, the city of Plymouth about 5 miles away and the A38 dual carriageway expressway, connecting to the M5 motorway and national road network, being about 2 miles distant.

DESCRIPTION

Goodamoor Farm extends to a total of some 56.94 acres (23.04 hectares) together with a range of modern farm buildings (29,500 square feet – 2,741 sq.m.), the full extent of which is shaded red and blue on the attached site plan.

The farm is available for sale as a whole or in two lots to suit buyer's requirements.

Access to the farm is over a council maintained highway (mainly tarmacadam surface and part compacted hardcore) leading in a northerly direction from Beechwood Cross to get to the access drive leading into the farm.

Lot 1 (as shaded red on the site plan)

Extending to a total of some 51.50 acres (20.84 hectares), together with a range of modern farm buildings as summarised :-

Building No 1 – General Purpose Agricultural Building

Granted planning consent (application numbers 49/1350/15 and 3180/17 for general agricultural use.

Measuring a total of some 230' x 50' = 11,500 square feet (1,069 square metres)

Building No 2 – General Purpose Farm Building

Granted planning consent (application numbers 49/1995/15 and 49/1997/15 and 49/1998/15 for general agricultural use.
