The Coates , Winchcombe GL54 5NJ

Nestled in the heart of the Cotswolds, Winchcombe is a quintessential English market town brimming with history, character, and natural beauty. Known for its honey-stone cottages, independent shops, and welcoming community, this historic town offers a perfect blend of rural charm and modern convenience.

Winchcombe is renowned for its rich heritage, with the stunning Sudeley Castle—once home to Queen Katherine Parr—standing as one of its most iconic landmarks. The town is a haven for walkers and outdoor enthusiasts, with scenic trails leading through the breath-taking Cotswold countryside, including the Cotswold Way and routes to Belas Knap, a fascinating Neolithic long barrow. Winchcombe also boasts a selection of charming pubs, cafés, and restaurants, offering everything from traditional pub fare to fine dining experiences.

For those looking to explore further afield, Winchcombe is ideally positioned near several beautiful villages and thriving towns. Just a short drive away is Broadway, often referred to as the ‘Jewel of the Cotswolds,’ with its picturesque High Street, boutique shops, and stunning Broadway Tower. Stow-on-the-Wold, another nearby gem, offers antique shops, cozy tearooms, and the famous St. Edward’s Church, known for its enchanting ‘Tolkien-esque’ door.

For larger town amenities, Cheltenham, just 15 minutes away , provides an array of shopping, dining, and cultural experiences. Famous for its Cheltenham Festival and stunning Regency architecture, the town is a hub
