

Mill Lane, Cotterstock
£1,275,000

A fabulous stone-built family home in a prestigious cul-de-sac of just 5 properties of similar ilk that were individually crafted in 1998. Positioned on a third of an acre plot and offering almost 3000sq ft of internal accommodation over two floors, giving flexible living and a stunning west-facing garden to the rear with far-reaching open views. This private garden has been lovingly tended, with an enviable lawn, corner pergola and several Indian Sandstone seating areas. An established frontage has a block paved drive with room for six cars as well as a double garage.

Internal specification is of a very high standard with Amtico flooring with inlaid pattern and a Neville Johnson staircase in the entrance, new Villeroy Boch bathrooms with Aqualisa showers in the last two years, Morso woodburner, solid oak kitchen worksurfaces and Corian sink, new doors on the double garage and replacement double glazing still under warranty.

The accommodation consists of an entrance hall, study, cloakroom, living room, games room, family room, kitchen dining room, utility, workroom/gym, conservatory, five double bedrooms, two with en-suites and a family bathroom.

Situated in a beautiful Northamptonshire village just 2 miles from Oundle, a historic market town close to the River Nene. Cotterstock is a small parish in the heart of the countryside with easy access to river walks.

Cotterstock is perfectly located for easy access to Peterborough train station just 25 minutes away and good road links in all directions. The A605 links the A1 at Peterborough with the A14 at Thrapston to the south. There is also good access to Corby train station with regular fast trains to London arriving within the hour.

The village is a small development of less than 70 properties and has an adopted Local Plan lodged with East Northamptonshire to ensure significant development does not take place; it has therefore been categorised as a Restricted Infill Settlement.

Oundle has a thriving Thursday market every week and Farmer's Market once a month. Independent shops and restaurants for all tastes are on offer as well as a choice of public houses, The Stahl Theatre, a recreation centre, doctor's surgery, library, post office, chemist, galleries, antique shops and much more. Barnwell Country Park provides the whole family with walks and a café.
