

High Street, Stanion
£625,000

This beautiful stone detached property, built in the early 1700's, is positioned in the conservation area of the popular village of Stanion, well-placed for amenities, road and rail links as well as a varied choice of both private and state-run schools within a short distance.

The current owners have maintained and enhanced their family home over the years and it now offers the best of both worlds with two reception rooms with an abundance of character but also that all-important modern feel open plan kitchen dining room that provides a fantastic entertaining space.

Further salient feature of this versatile home are the bathrooms provided on each floor, not often found in period properties, a good amount of natural light and no head height restrictions.

To the rear of the property is an attached thatched barn measuring 22' x 15' as well as a workshop and a gym. Re-thatched in 2023, this space is currently used for storage but could have a variety of uses dependant on individual needs.

The mature gardens are south facing, with zoned areas offering a private sun terrace, established beds to the lawn areas, a variety of shrubs and trees as well as a vegetable garden. Parking is accessed from the front of the property through a wooden side gate onto a gravel area with room for 3 or 4 cars.

Stanion is perfectly situated for access to good road links, with the A14 just a few-minutes drive away and the A1 approximately 15-minutes. The newly developed Rushden Lakes complex is easily reached within 15 minutes and provides a fantastic range of shops, restaurants and eateries as well as a cinema.

Corby is a 10-minute drive and offers a regular train service to London St Pancras within an hour and a good range of shopping facilities due to regeneration in recent years. A Tesco supermarket, doctor's surgery and dentist are additional benefits.

The market towns of Thrapston, Uppingham and Oundle are all a short distance away and both the latter are homes to highly desirable public schools. There is a wide choice of state schools and colleges in the vicinity too, including an Ofsted rated 'good' primary school in Stanion.

The village has a vibrant community with a pro-active village hall. Other local facilities include dog walkers and a groomer, milk and newspaper deliveries, a bakery and walks from your doorstep. Local shops can be found 5-minutes away in Brigstock or, in the other direction, 2-minutes away in Little Stanion.
