The Property

Set in a converted Grade II listed Georgian town house, this lower level courtyard apartment enjoys some fine features including sash windows and period fireplaces.

The building is accessed via the ground floor communal hall with stairs leading to the lower level to the apartment. There is only one apartment at this level.

Entering the apartment into the hallway which is on a split level with a "L" shape and access to one of the two private courtyards. A large sitting/dining kitchen leads to the small private courtyard and two vaults.

There are two double bedrooms situated to the front of the property, a modern kitchen with appliances and characterful bathroom.

Properties of this type and superb central location are a rare find and we highly recommend an early viewing.

The Situation

Oxford Row is located in the heart of Georgian Bath, close to the famous Bath Assembly Rooms which leads onto the Kings Circus, Brock Street and Royal Crescent, which from an aerial view forms The Masons Key.

The UNESCO World Heritage City of Bath is on the doorstep and offers a wonderful array of chain and independent retail outlets, many fine restaurants, cafes and wine bars along with a number of well respected cultural activities which includes a world famous international music and literary festival, a selection of museums and art galleries and the attractions at The Roman Baths and Pump Rooms.

World class sporting facilities are available at nearby Bath Rugby and Cricket Clubs and at Bath University and there are excellent hotel, spa and gym facilities at The Gainsborough, The Priory, The Royal Crescent and Combe Grove Manor Hotels.

Communications include a direct line to London Paddington, Bristol and South Wales from Bath Spa Railway Station. The M4 Motorway junction 18 is 10 miles to the north and Bristol Airport is 18 miles to the west.
