Winceby Fields is a stunning new development of 2, 3 and 4 bedroom homes located in Horncastle, a beautiful English market town on the edge of the picturesque Lincolnshire Wolds. Horncastle is brimming with a great selection of antique shops, galleries, award winning coffee shops, popular restaurants and cosy traditional pubs. There is also a growing number of artisan shops offering unique clothing and gifts. Plus, with great transport links, residents of Winceby Fields can be in Lincoln via the A158 in just 35 minutes.

- Benefiting from excellent transport links, Winceby Fields is just minutes away from the A158, meaning Lincoln is only a short car ride away. There's multiple bus stops within walking distance of Winceby Fields, with routes running to Lincoln, Grimsby, Louth and Hull
- Horncastle boasts plenty of amenities and several supermarkets. There's also a pharmacy, bank and Field Farm Shop, a local farm shop that specialises in meat, free range eggs and organic veg. The weekly market is held on Thursdays and Saturdays with a farmer's market held monthly
- Horncastle has plenty of great restaurants, friendly pubs, quaint cafes and an array of takeaways, meaning there's something for everyone - from fish and chips to gourmet Italian eateries
- Horncastle Pool and Fitness Suite is just four minutes away from the development and boasts a 25m four lane swimming pool and a large state of the art gym
- For those looking to get outdoors, Bain Valley Park is just a 20 minute walk from Winceby Fields, providing a play area for children and plenty of green open space for picnics and dog walking
- For a fun day out perfect for children, Wolds Wildlife Park is just a five minute drive from Winceby Fields, and has an array of animals to see, including lions, bears, zebras and lemurs
