

Collingham Road, London, SW5

Situated on the third floor (with lift) of Melbourne House, this two-bedroom flat boasts exceptional ceiling heights with an abundance of natural light throughout. Both bedrooms feature quality built-in storage, with the principal bedroom benefiting from a well-placed en-suite, complemented by a second guest bathroom conveniently located off the hallway. The elevated kitchen, thoughtfully partitioned from the reception room, adds further distinctive charm to the living space.

Whilst the property would benefit from updating, it presents a unique opportunity to reimagine the space to your taste. The flat is ideally suited to buyers looking for a London base, or those in search of an elegant pied-à-terre.

Melbourne House is a meticulously maintained period building on the prestigious Western Terrace. The property enjoys vistas of St. Jude's Church (East) at the front, with views over Courtfield Gardens (West) at the rear. The award-winning communal garden square, celebrated for its stunning landscaping, truly is an exquisite tranquil space.
