Property description

A traditional style, spacious family home occupying a central location within the popular hamlet of Elrig. Sitting on a generous sized plot of approximately 1/3 of an acre within a short distance to the shores of Luce bay, this is an ideal opportunity to purchase substantial property in a well sought after location. This property provides well-proportioned accommodation over two levels having been extended to the rear, managing to include a ground floor WC and large living room to the rear with feature fireplace providing a rear outlook over garden ground. The extension also allows for a spacious bathroom and generous master bedroom to the rear. Sitting on a generous plot, benefitting from maintained garden ground to the rear stretching down to a tranquil setting at the 'Old Mill Burn'. A delightful property of both character and charm, viewings of this family home is to be thoroughly recommended.

With both the property being of traditional construction under a slate roof and extension to the rear, the property is situated adjacent to other properties of varying style and set within its own generous area of well-maintained garden ground with side access for potential off-road parking. There is an outlook to the front over open farmland and beyond and outlook over garden grounds to the rear. There is an outbuilding to the side which has the potential to be used as decent storage/ workshop. The property also currently benefits from fully oil-fired central heating..

Local amenities are to be found in the village of Port William and include general store, hotel and primary school, while all major amenities are located in the market town of Newton Stewart including supermarkets, healthcare and secondary school. There is also a transport service available for schooling from close by. Other amenities are available in the town of Stranraer approximately 25 miles distant. The surrounding area is particularly attractive with its shoreline within easy reach and rolling farmland situated inland. Outdoor pursuits are numerous and include walking, fishing and a range of excellent golf courses within a few miles. Viewing of this most appealing home is to be thoroughly recommended.
