DESCRIPTION

Craggan Glas is a detached cottage appreciating a lovely aspect across to Clashnessie bay, with its sandy beach. The property is set in large garden grounds with out buildings and a "tiny house", which is set on the land to the side and provides a small but charming holiday let appreciating amazing views to the sea. Set separately from the main house, this area of land would be ideal as a building plot, subject to Local Authority consent.

The main house offers nicely proportioned accommodation accessed via a good sized sun lounge/porch. The lounge has a open fire set within a feature stone wall with integrated seating to either side and is open plan to a dining room, which has patio doors opening to the garden at the rear. The ground floor is completed with a kitchen, utility room and shower room.

An open-tread wooden staircase gains access to the first floor accommodation including three bedrooms and a bathroom. Benefiting from oil central heating, the cottage is mostly double glazed and enjoys lovely views, either towards the sea or over the surrounding countryside.

LOCATION

The property is set in the crofting township of Clashnessie on the Stoer Peninsula in Assynt, renowned for its stunning, wild scenery set amidst spectacular mountains and sandy beaches. Set just off the NC500, the property looks across the surrounding croft land towards the bay with sandy beach. There are lots of activities available for the more active including mountain climbing, fishing or sailing on the sea, with Clachtoll, Clashnessie and Achmelvich beaches all a short drive away. On land there are red deer, otters and badgers. The bird life is prolific including buzzards and other birds of prey, gannets, skua, divers and oyster catchers. Assynt is famed for its numerous fresh water lochs offering wild brown trout fishing. Primary education is Lochinver Primary School and Secondary education is provided at Ullapool High School (bus service provided) Local necessities can be found in Lochinver, some 9 miles distant with further shops and service available in Ullapool, some 43 miles away. The city of Inverness, the capital of the Highlands, is approximately 99 miles away.

DIRECTIONS
