Ardonan Farm Ardonan Lane, Ramsey, Isle Of Man, IM7 3HN

A rare and exciting opportunity to acquire a traditional farmhouse offering huge potential for renovation or complete re-development in one of the most picturesque and peaceful locations on the Island.

Set within approximately 15 acres of surrounding land, this unique property enjoys an elevated position boasting spectacular panoramic views of the surrounding mountains and countryside. The farmhouse sits within a generous plot, with ample scope to create a truly special rural retreat, family home, or equestrian property.

The existing structure offers a charming layout full of character and traditional features, ready to be restored to its former glory or completely reimaged to suit modern rural living.

The surrounding land, made up of rolling pasture and natural hedgerow boundaries, offers incredible potential for a range of lifestyle uses — including small-scale farming, equestrian facilities, or extended gardens and recreational areas. The land also provides a natural buffer of privacy, enhancing the sense of seclusion and space.

Benefitting from easy access to local amenities and just a short drive to nearby villages and transport links, this location offers the best of both worlds: rural charm with convenient accessibility.

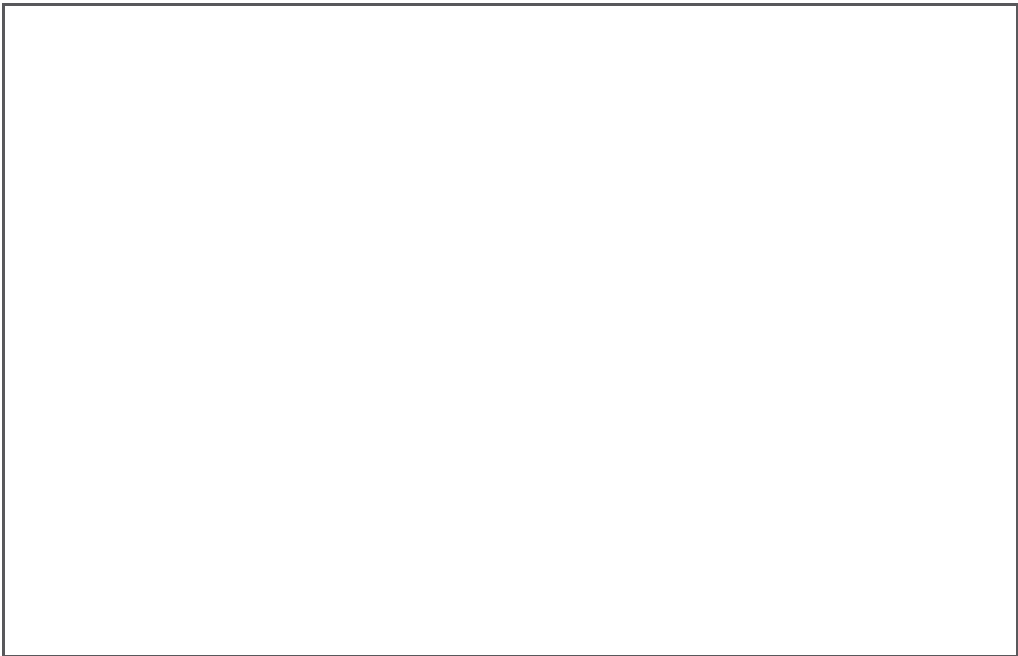

Whether you're seeking a forever family home in the countryside, a high-end self-build project, or an investment opportunity with huge upside, this property is brimming with potential.

Opportunities like this are few and far between — early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the full scope of what's on offer.
