"Far from the madding crowds" could not be a more fitting phrase for this delightful family home. Only metaphorically speaking mind you, as the the Cosmopolitan village of Alderley Edge and the thriving town of Macclesfield are merely a short drive away!

We would welcome discerning viewers the opportunity to come and experience an hour at Finlow Hill, not only to enjoy the amazing views, that will stay with you for quite some time, but also the quiet serenity of the beautiful gardens and how the house flows from inside out, to simply create an aura of welcome, that you will not want to leave behind.

The clever, creative design behind this house is not to be overlooked; the sweeping curves echo the sweeping hills in the vista, while the clean, clinical lines create an undeniably clever contrast of the sheer ruggedness of the rural landscape enjoyed through oversized picture windows.

The newness of the home allows one to now move in and create their own imprint, whether that be to continue sipping cocktails and enjoying the sunset from the terraces, harvesting strawberries from the flower beds, or watching your own ponies gallop in the fields beyond and seeing the seasons change!

The home offers very generous accommodation stretching over approx. 10,300sqft including eight different reception areas and an amazing 'chill out' zone with Jacuzzi, Sauna, Steam room and pool, oh and a Gym! The large Master suite has two bathrooms, dressings rooms and view to enjoy every day! Added to which there are four further bedroom suites. There are various out buildings including a stable block and detached garage, which has the benefit of planning for a separate annex.

Although there are around 16 acres, nearer to home there are dedicated garden features, including a fully stocked kitchen garden, ornamental walled garden and the Orchard is organic! But the best place to wind down for a summers evening must be sitting by the wildlife pond enjoying the view.
