Show Office Suite on the 3rd Floor

Once a fashion showroom, today Portland House hosts a dynamic mix of retail and office-based companies. The building comprises a collection of attractive open plan units, which have been recently refurbished to a Cat A and Cat A+ specification including air-conditioning and 100% Landlord renewable electricity.

Additionally, our meticulously designed furniture packages offer the perfect fusion of style and functionality, allowing you to tailor your workspace to suit your unique business needs.

The packages have been crafted to enhance versatility and productivity whilst the open-plan floor design provides a high-quality work environment fostering collaboration and innovation, including breakout areas, fixed workspaces, a dedicated waiting and welcome area as well as collaborative & brainstorming zones. Glimpse into the proposed layout and furniture choice for your workspace. You can personalise your selected office floor's furniture by choosing the final finishes to align with your brand identity*.
