East Sheen is a residential area located in the London Borough of Richmond upon Thames. It is situated approximately 8 miles southwest of central London and is bordered by the river Thames to the north and Richmond Park to the south.

One of the main attractions of East Sheen is its proximity to the deer inhabited Richmond Park, which covers an area of over 2,300 acres and is the largest of the Royal Parks in London. The park offers a range of recreational activities, including walking, cycling, horse riding, and wildlife watching. It is also home to several historic buildings, including Pembroke Lodge, a former royal residence that now houses a popular café and event venue.

In addition to Richmond Park, East Sheen has several other green spaces, including Palewell Common and Sheen Common, both of which offer opportunities for outdoor activities and relaxation. East Sheen has a thriving high street, which is home to a range of shops, cafes, restaurants, and gastro pubs. There are also several supermarkets, including Waitrose and Tesco. The area is well known for its excellent schools, both state and private. Transportation links in East Sheen are good, a short walk to Mortlake train station, several bus routes serving the area and Richmond station providing access to the London Underground, Overground, and National Rail services, giving direct access into the City. private.
