About the house

Located in this quiet parkside Close, near to the beautiful Richmond Park and Palewell Common, this impressive and beautifully proportioned property provides circa 2,885 square feet over 3 floors and boasts a stylish and contemporary design, with quality finishes and fixtures throughout. The wide entrance hall sets the tone for the rest of the property, with its light and airy feel, leading on to a spacious south facing open plan kitchen/living/dining room, offering the perfect space for entertaining guests or relaxing with family. The property boasts five double bedrooms, with the principle suite being on the 2nd floor. There are also two additional modern bathrooms. The property also benefits from a secluded south facing garden with a large timber decked terrace and seating area. The front garden has been hard landscaped and provides off street parking for a number of cars and side access.

Location

East Sheen is a suburban area located in the London Borough of Richmond upon Thames. It is situated approximately 8 miles southwest of central London and is bordered by the River Thames to the north and Richmond Park to the South.

One of the many attractions of East Sheen is its proximity to Richmond Park, which covers an area of over 2,300 acres and is the largest of the Royal Parks in London. The park offers a range of recreational activities, including walking, cycling, horse riding, and wildlife watching. It is also home to several historic buildings, including Pembroke Lodge, a former royal residence that now houses a popular cafe and event venue. In addition to Richmond Park, East Sheen has several other green spaces, including Palewell Common and Sheen Common, both of which offer opportunities for outdoor activities and relaxation.

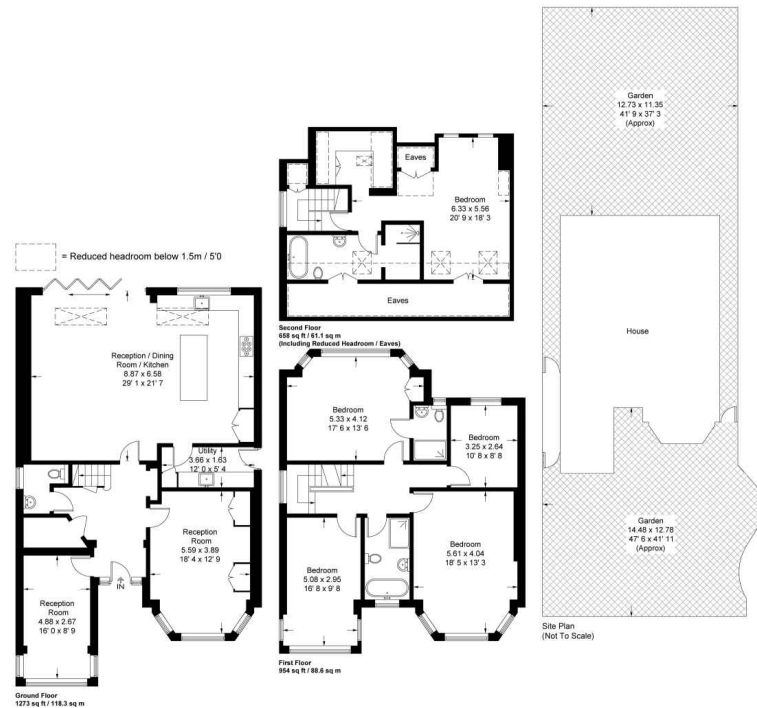

East Sheen has a thriving high street, which is home to a range of shops, cafes, restaurants, and pubs. There are also several supermarkets, including Waitrose and Tesco, making it easy for residents to do their weekly shopping.
