This well-appointed Victorian house, extended into the loft, offers substantial, bright and well-balanced, accommodation over three floors and is an ideal family home in one of the prime streets in East Dulwich

On entering the property, the ground floor provides a double reception room, which has been opened up to form one large living space, complete with high ceilings, bay window and fireplace, the kitchen/breakfast room is a good-size with ample space for dining and very light thanks to its dual aspect and side door which leads out to a sunny lawned garden with paved patio and side return
