"When we found this home 15 years ago, it had everything we were looking for—rural charm, a private road, a secluded south-facing garden, and excellent commuter links. The development is the perfect balance of community and privacy, making it a wonderful place to live. We've cherished our time here and have made thoughtful upgrades, including re-fitting the kitchen in 2021 and a newly fitted family bathroom and en-suite, as well as updated windows and doors last year. The spacious interior flows beautifully and the garden has been a true highlight - private and peaceful, ideal for summer BBQs and gatherings with family and friends. With stunning countryside footpaths just steps away and a fantastic family-run pub serving great food nearby, this home has provided the perfect lifestyle. We hope the next owners will enjoy it as much as we have."
