Sea views

This impressive house of character is situated in an elevated position at the entrance to the village of Llwyngwrl. Built in the late 1930's and retaining many original features of this period. With distant sea views from most aspects, the present owners have re-roofed and upgraded the property over many years. Sitting in over half an acre of grounds mainly laid to lawn with mature shrubs and trees plus tarmac parking for several vehicles. The property comprises entrance hallway with original oak flooring leading to lounge, sun room, dining room, study, utility, cloakroom and kitchen diner on the ground floor. With 4 good sized bedrooms, bathroom and dressing room plus en suite shower to the master bedroom. All rooms have sea or hillside views. There is also a useful cellar plus attic storage with its original pull down ladder. Upvc wood effect double glazed doors and windows and oil centrally heated. This property is a principal residence. The current owners have lived in this home for 24 years and are reluctantly selling to downsize.

Llwyngwrl is a small but stunningly beautiful village on the shores of Cardigan Bay. The village has a shop a post office hub weekly and there is a daily bus and mainline rail service. Tywyn which is approximately 8 miles away boasts its own leisure centre and swimming pool complex plus all the usual facilities including a cinema, cottage hospital and high school. Dolgellau another hub for shops and leisure centre is approximately 11 miles away. For golfing, boating and all water sports the harbour village of Aberdovey is just fourteen miles away along the coast past Tywyn towards Pennal and Machynlleth.
