€ 990.000

Contemporary design villa with private pool and large terraces. Located in the famous urbanization of the Costa Blanca, Altea Hills. The house is semi-detached on one side, but its architectural design makes it look like a completely independent house. The property has five bedrooms, two of them en suite, plus a third bathroom and a guest toilet. On the upper floor, where you access the house, we find outdoor parking for two cars. Once inside, we have the master suite, with a large dressing room and incredible views of the bay of Altea. If we go down one floor, we find the day area, a spacious living-dining room with an open kitchen, all with access to the main terrace where the pool is located.
