

Georgette Place, SE10

£2,500,000

This freehold property is offered to the market for offers in excess of £2,500,000. It is superbly renovated semi detached Georgian family home in a tranquil and dominating setting. With three/four bedrooms, two reception rooms and two bathrooms and an underground garage with internal access to the property. The property has been finished to a phenomenal standard and is offered to the market chain free. Rather unique for Greenwich it comes with a gated forecourt and a landscaped garden.

This property has great views and is located at the top of a quiet no through road in West Greenwich conservation area. A short walk from Greenwich station and DLR as well as all the amenities on offer from independent shops and restaurants to large chain brands. Royal Greenwich Park is just moments away.
