

Dutton Street, SE10 £750,000

This exceptional two-bedroom Victorian home has been sympathetically restored and renovated to a very high standard, while preserving period features including working fireplaces and original floorboards throughout. It benefits from two equally sized bedroom, a private and secluded garden with decking, and substantial storage space, including a boarded loft and bike store.

The property is situated in a very sought after location, a short walk from both Greenwich mainline and DLR stations. Greenwich town centre is close by as are a varied selection of large, green open spaces including The Point pocket park, Greenwich Park and Blackheath common.
