I remember the first time I saw an apartment at Grangemoor Court, I instantly fell in love with the site - not only did you have a stunning water view from the balcony - it faced West so you are able to enjoy the view in sunshine - perfect. As a bonus - easy links into Cardiff, Penarth or the M4 with a great shopping retail park on your doorstep.

We were amazed by the space of the apartment and how it felt like a house and the views from the bedroom and the balcony are beautiful. The beauty of the views is that it's undisturbed as there's a railway track on the other side which is blocked by the trees, (you don't hear it) so they can't build houses opposite, so it feels really private. The area is also beautiful a really nice local coffee shop and bakery and great walking and running routes across the water! Transport into town is also excellent as the bus stop is over the road!
