An excellent detached house on a quiet tree line road in Kingswood. The house has five double bedrooms and two bathrooms, one being en suite to the main suite.

The ground floor has a great sense of space throughout with a large living area that is the full depth of the property, a good size dining room, a study to the front of the house and a separate kitchen and utility room. There is also a large integral garage which can be accessed from inside the house.

The garden is a brilliant size and gets sun throughout the day, a great feeling of privacy with a patio area accessed from the utility, dining room or living room allowing easy flow inside and out which is perfect for children and entertaining.

Upstairs you can find five good size bedrooms and two newly installed bathroom suites, 4/5 bedrooms have built-in storage as well as a large loft space.

Located within easy distance of Kingswood, Banstead and the M25 the house is so accessible for local shops, pubs and supermarkets as well as train stations taking you in to central London
