Wraysbury is a charming village offering a wealth of amenities and a strong sense of community. Residents enjoy a variety of local shops, two historic churches, a traditional cricket green, a well-regarded village primary school, and two welcoming public houses. These include the renowned George Inn, a celebrated gastro pub overlooking the village green, and The Perseverance, a beautifully preserved Grade II listed building located on the High Street.

The village is home to a vibrant range of clubs and societies catering to diverse interests—from tennis, amateur dramatics, wine making, and local history to scouts, art, and more. These groups come together each year at the popular Village Fair, a highlight of the local calendar.

Welley Road is particularly well-situated, just a short walk from Sunnymeads train station, offering direct rail links to Windsor and London Waterloo.
