CURRAN BIRDS + CO

Welcome to CB+CO, where dedication meets excellence, and impeccable service is our hallmark.

GENEROUS GARDEN PLOT & EXCITING POTENTIAL - A well presented traditional bay fronted detached property of style and character with generous plot and mature gardens. This property offers exciting potential for extension due to the large plot (this would be subject to necessary planning consent being obtained) This property offers an ideal location for a family wanting to be close to amenities, schools and other community facilities. The property has been presented to a tasteful neutral theme throughout and has superb contemporary fittings including a beautiful open plan dining kitchen with french doors leading to the rear garden and also a superb contemporary shower room. A stand out feature, is the large plot that the property sits on. It is well set back from the road with a block paved driveway, whilst to the rear is generous private enclosed rear garden.

The Detail

The property enjoys many stand out features, with one being the large plot that the property sits on with an extensive private garden to rear offering excellent potential for an extension (subject to planning consent being obtained).

Internally the property has been well maintained making this an ideal family home. The property has a lounge with feature bay window capturing plenty of light, whilst at the rear and backing on to the garden is an open plan kitchen dining area. The modern kitchen has been refitted to a high standard with integrated appliances, quality worktops and sink drainer unit. This is an ideal room for entertaining guests or enjoying meals with the family.

Upon the first floor are three bedrooms, the two double having the benefit from fitted wardrobes. In addition there is an impressive contemporary en-suite shower room with white three piece suite including a walk in shower with rainfall shower head, low flush wc, wash hand basin with vanity unit and chrome towel radiator.

The property is well set back from road with a block paved driveway proving parking. At the rear, is a large garden offering a great degree of privacy with a patio area and large lawn. This is ideal for the keen gardener or family with young children. There is also a detached brick built garage located in generous rear garden providing useful storage.
